

Cispus Pass, Goat Lake

18 miles total, 3,300' gained

Park in the signed Snowgrass trailhead near Chambers Lake. (The nearby Berry Patch trailhead can also be used if needed).

The first few hundred feet of the trail is on #96A. At the first junction stay right on #96.

Proceed on #96 for about 3 ½ miles. Go right on the bypass trail, #97.

Proceed on #97 for about a mile. Go right on the PCT.

Proceed on the PCT for about 2 miles, to the marked Cispus Pass. Turn around here.

Retrace your route on the PCT, then continue ¾ mile past the junction with #97.

Go left at the junction with #96. Proceed downhill on #96 for a ½ mile or so.

Go right at the junction with #86. From this point it's about 2 ½ miles to Goat Lake.

At about 1 mile past Goat Lake, crest the ridge, staying left onto #95 (#86 heads up right).

Now it's 4 ½ miles mostly downhill – ignoring #94 and #95A – back to the trailheads.

Berry Patch is the first parking area; go to the left about ½ mile to #96A for Snowgrass parking.
